Silly Dizzy Dinosaur!

Jack Tickle

LITTLE TIGER PRESS
London

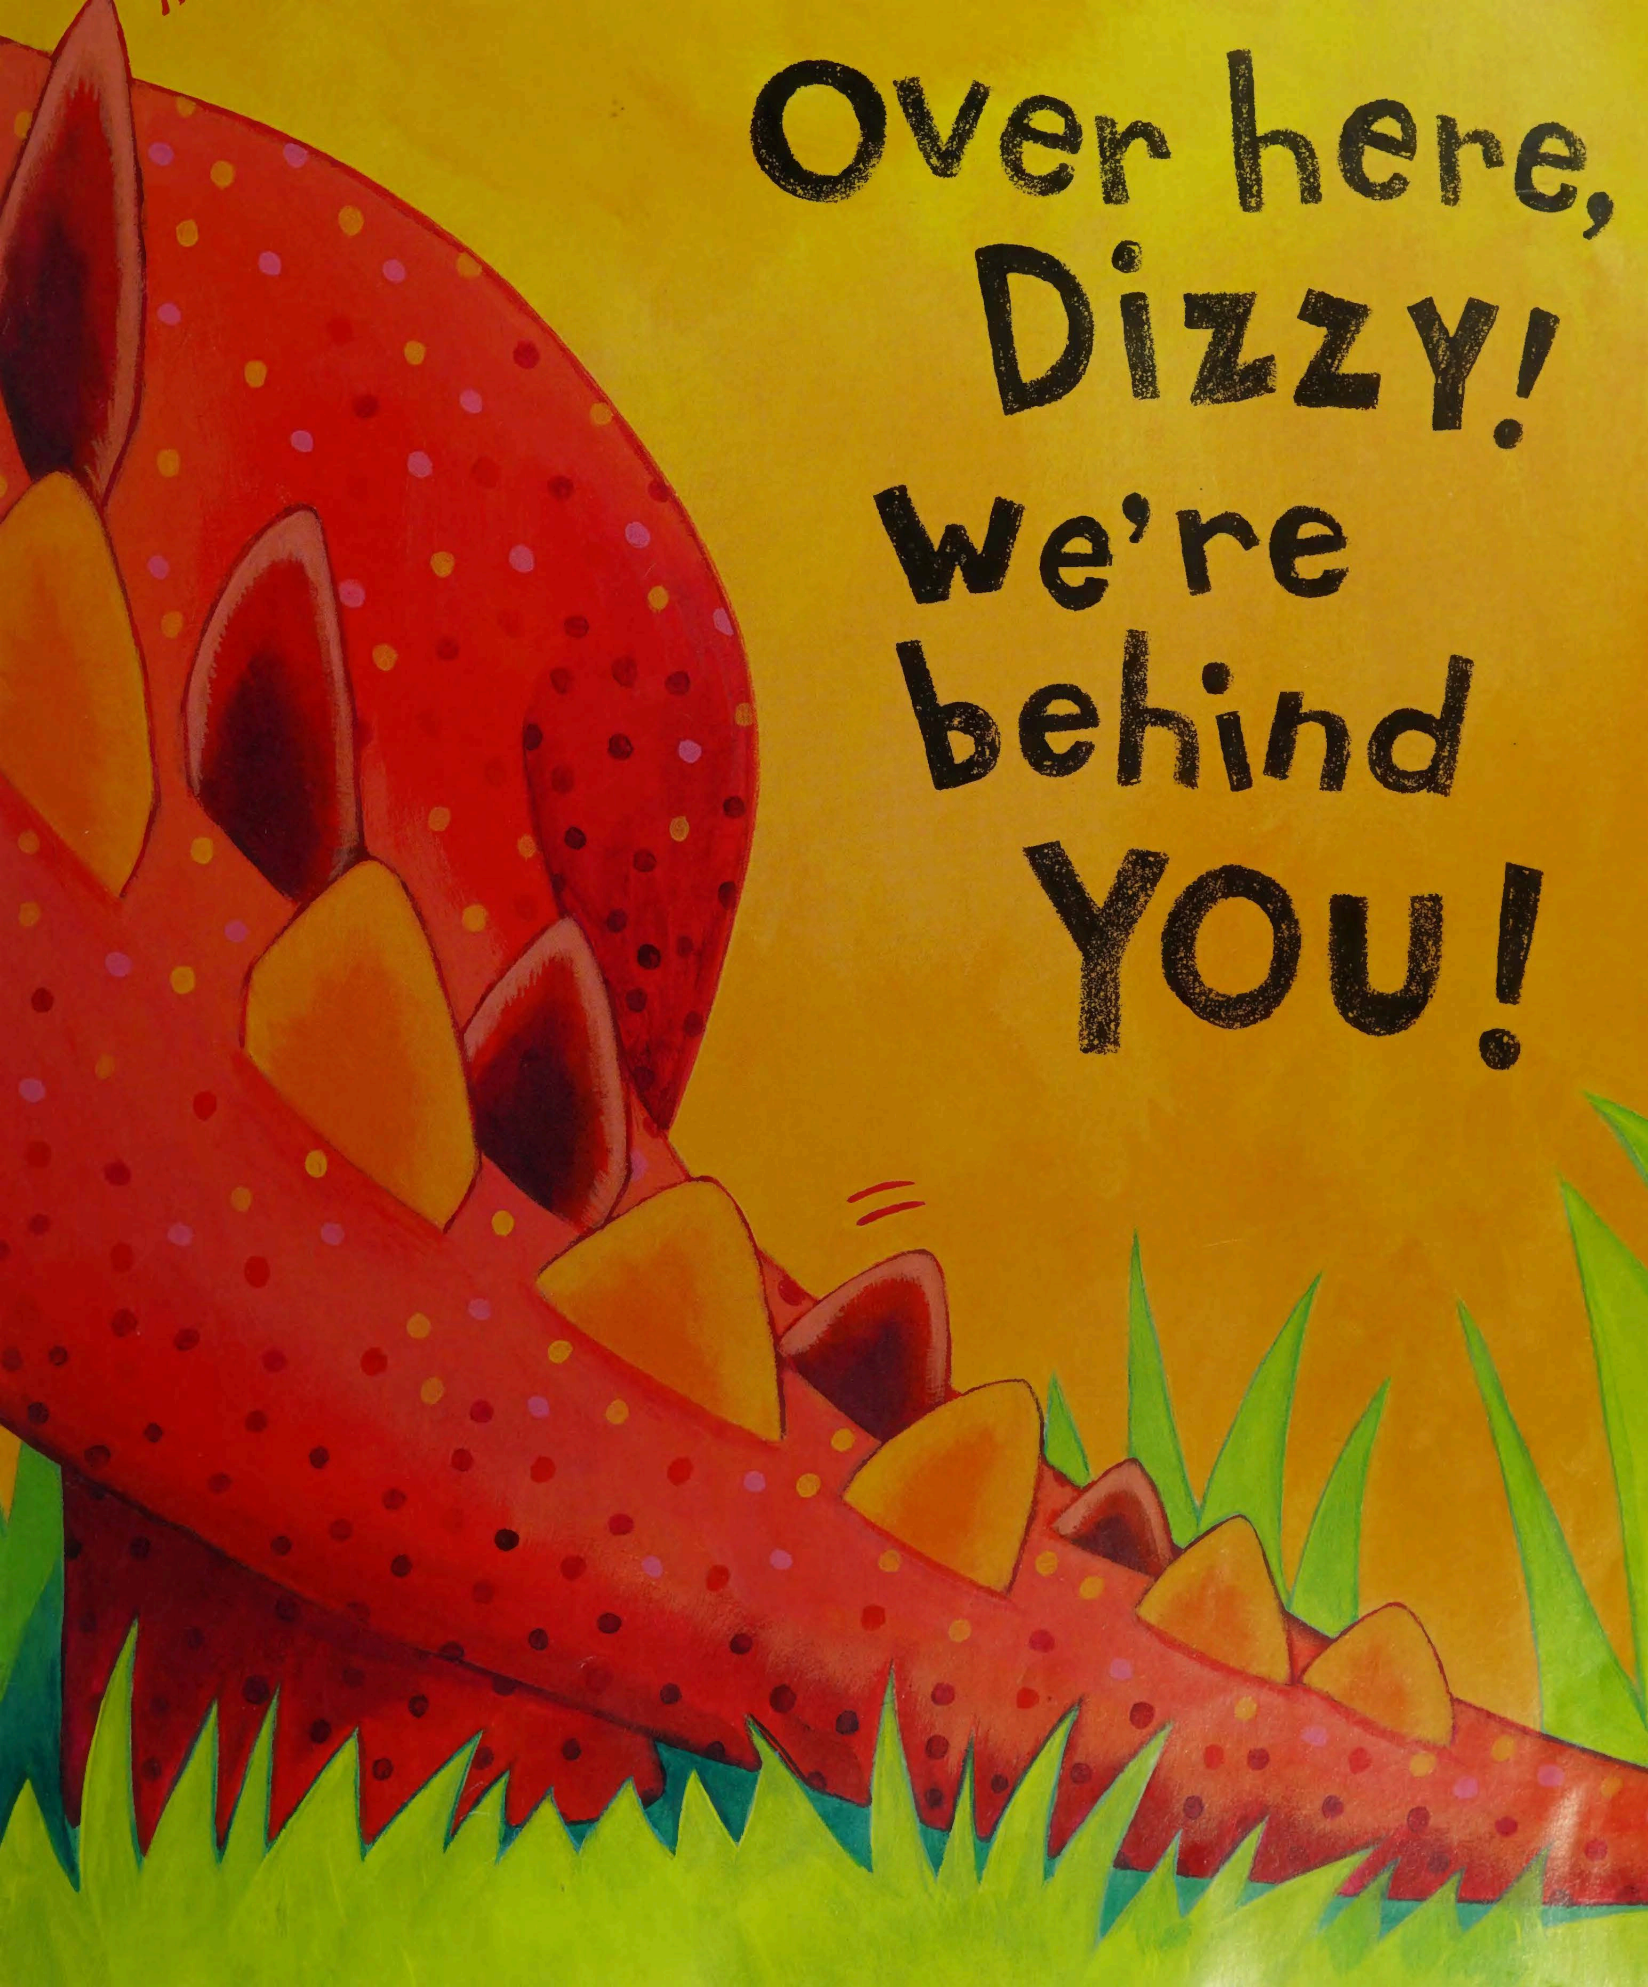

Hello, everyone.
Meet Dizzy Dinosaur!

Over here,
Dizzy!
We're
behind
You!

Huh?

Isn't he lovely?
Dizzy loves tickles.
Come on, everyone —
let's tickle Dizzy
on his tummy!

Hee
hee
hee!

Oops!

We've tickled Dizzy
a bit too much.

Look out,
Dizzy!

Splash!

Poor soggy Dizzy!
Let's shake the book
up and down.
That'll dry him off.

Woah!

That's a bit too shaky!

Hic!

Hic!

Hic!

Uh-oh!

Now Dizzy's got hiccups!

How can we stop them?

I know! We can surprise him.

Let's all shout "Boo!"

After three:

one . . .

two . . .

three . . .

BOO!

Eeek!

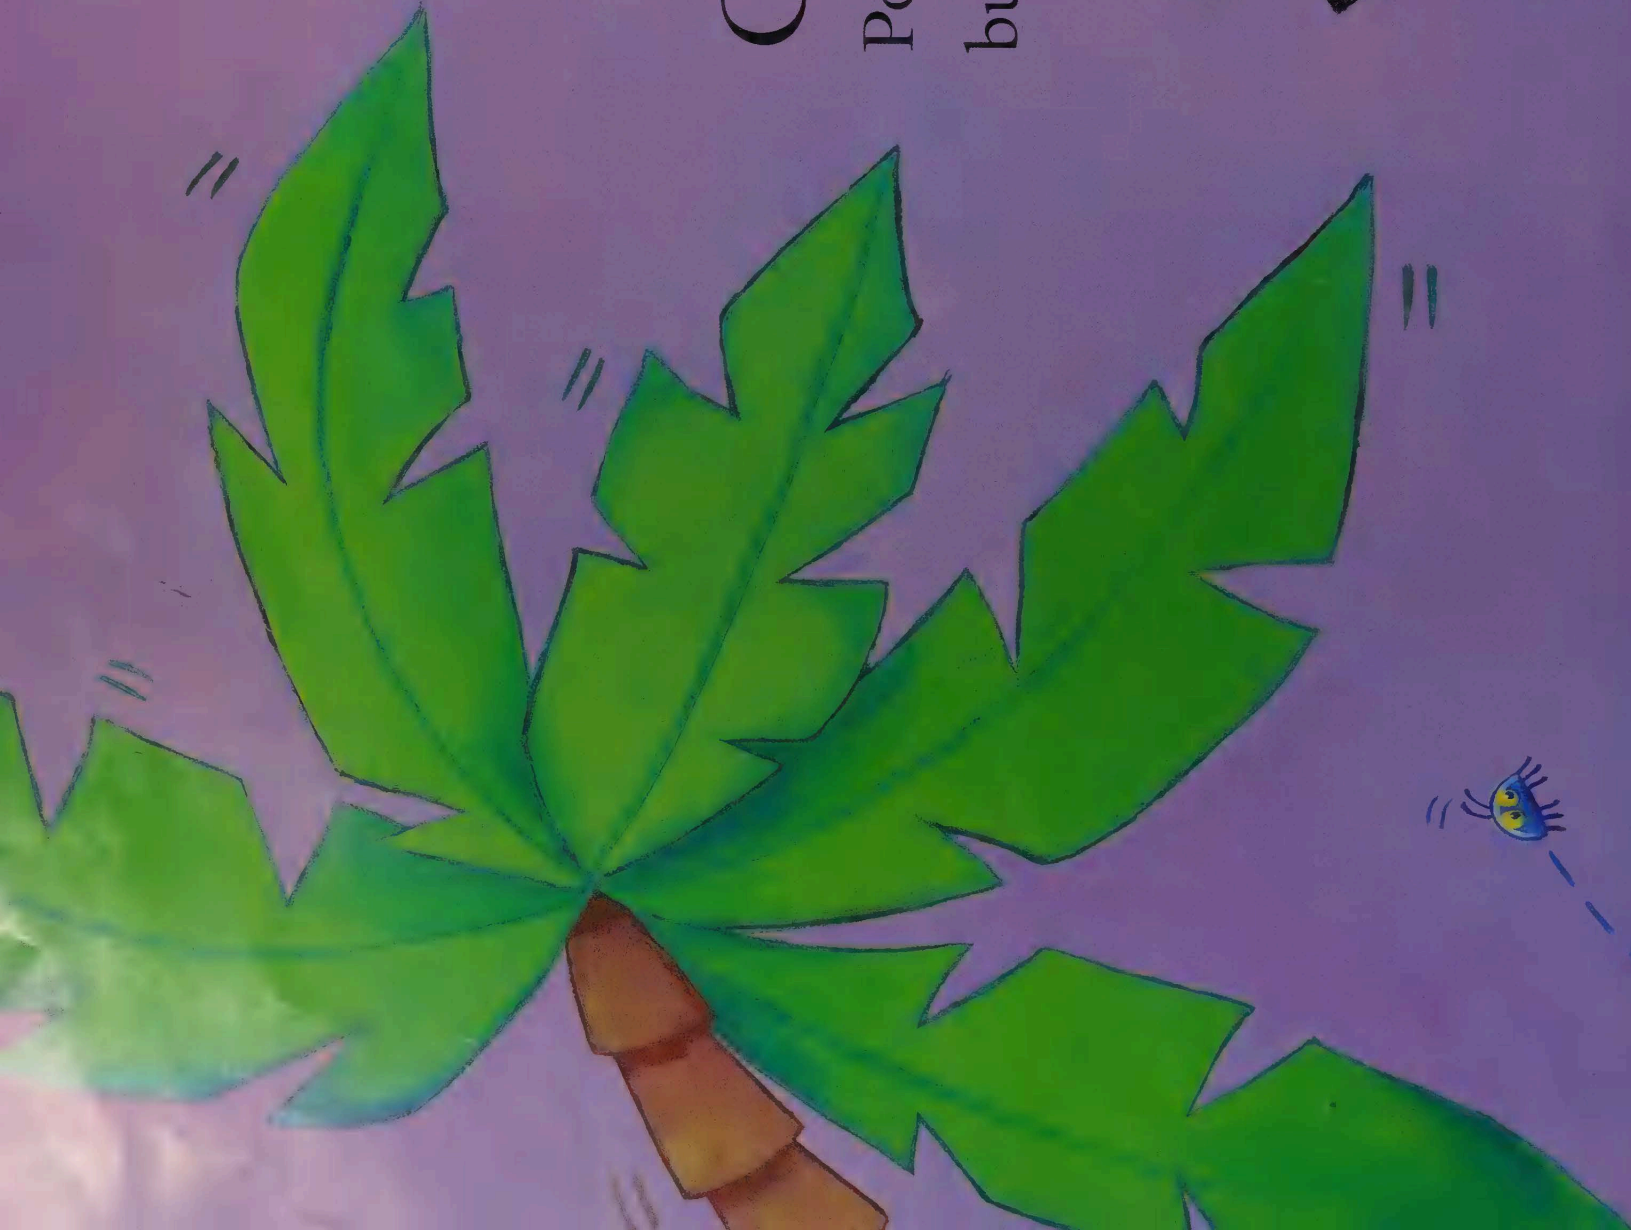

Oh no, Dizzy!
We're Sorry
We Scared
You!

We have to help Dizzy
down from the tree.
Let's turn the book
sideways.

Oops!

Poor Dizzy has bumped his bottom.

Come
here, Dizzy!

We can cheer
you up!

Coming!

Slow
down,
DIZZY!

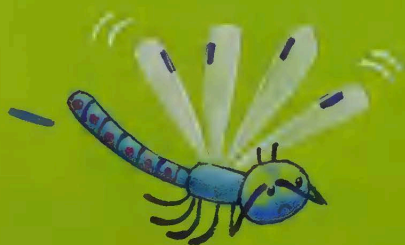

You're going
a bit fast!

Crash!

A cartoon illustration of a red, spotted dinosaur with a large, rounded body and a long neck. The dinosaur is bumping its nose against the trunk of a palm tree. The palm tree trunk is brown and segmented, with green fronds at the top. The background is a solid light green color. The dinosaur's head is tilted back, and its eyes are wide open, looking up at the palm tree. A small, blue and white striped insect is flying away from the dinosaur's head, leaving a dashed line behind it.

Oh dear. Poor Dizzy.
Now he's bumped his nose! I know what he needs . . .

Let's all give Dizzy
a great, big kiss.
That's better.

BYe-bYe, DIZZY.

See You Soon!

Awww!

Over here, Dizzy! We're behind You!

Dizzy Dinosaur loves to have fun!

But sometimes he's a little bit silly.

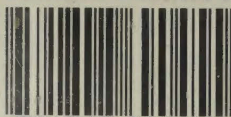

Uh-oh! Dizzy needs our help ... again!

A wonderfully interactive book,
packed with moments for tickling,
shaking and shouting ...
